Wheeled Coach Names Emergency Vehicles Plus as Dealer for Michigan

Orlando, Florida – Wheeled Coach Industries, Inc., the world’s largest ambulance manufacturer, has named Emergency Vehicles Plus as their ambulance dealer for Michigan.

“I am happy to announce that Emergency Vehicles Plus has been named the Wheeled Coach Dealer for Michigan. As the leader in the ambulance industry, we continuously explore ways to provide our customers with unsurpassed sales and service in the areas in which we compete. Emergency Vehicles Plus has been a successful dealer of fire apparatus for many years. Undoubtedly, their accomplishments in the fire service will extend to EMS seeing as they will now exclusively sell the complete line of quality Wheeled Coach ambulances,” stated Robert Collins, President of Wheeled Coach Industries, Inc.

John Dykstra, President of Emergency Vehicles Plus, added, “Over our 38 year history, we have concentrated on growing our business by providing unmatched service along with establishing strong and lasting relationships with all of our customers. Now with the addition of Wheeled Coach, we will be able to provide all of our EMS customers with the best products, service, and delivery in the industry.”

Wheeled Coach is a wholly owned subsidiary of Collins Industries, Inc. In addition to being a leading manufacturer of ambulances (including medical attack vehicles, rescue vehicles and fire emergency vehicles), Collins Industries is North America’s largest producer of Type “A” small school buses, the nation’s second largest manufacturer of terminal trucks and a leader in the road construction and industrial sweeper markets. Since 1971, the Company has grown to approximately 1,000 employees in six plants comprising over one million combined square feet of manufacturing space. The Company sells its products throughout the United States and abroad.
