

Wheeled Coach DSMs Offer Assistance To Katrina Victims

Wheeled Coach DSMs Don Estabrook and James Porterfield were in Louisiana and Mississippi doing field service work. They assisted the Red Cross by donating their time to help with disaster relief efforts.

Wheeled Coach units were used throughout the region during this disaster.

A Wheeled Coach Red Cross ambulance sits flooded in front of a hotel just off Interstate 10 in Pascagoula, Miss., as Hurricane Katrina batters the area.
